Bhopal: The Department of Architecture and Interior Design of Government Women's Polytechnic College Bhopal will organise an alumni meet on Saturday.

It is to be noted that this is the second year in a row that the students who have come out of here will join the alumni meet. For this, the department took the initiative to form a group of former girls last year, so that all the batch-mates remain connected to each other even after the pass-out from the college.

To make it successful and memorable, the programme is planned in three sections. The first session will be a formal programme in which all the alumni will relive their old days of college. They will also share their career and career journey after diploma with teachers and juniors.

In the second session some interesting games, quizzes and colorful events have been planned. In the third session of this meet, an exhibition is being organized by the students in which the artworks and models will be displayed in a professional manner.

CP Dhananjaya, an active student of this alumni meet, said that such a meeting also gives an opportunity to know and understand the achievements of the former students.
